

DEMOCRATIC BOSSES FRAME DEAL TO THROW THEIR CANDIDATE OVER

At Sunday Afternoon Meeting Machine Men Determine to Lead Geo. W. Hall to Slaughter.

TO PUT RUTLIDGE ACROSS

In Return Progressive Bosses Agree to Throw Support to Democratic Council Candidates.

HALL'S CHANCES HOPELESS

Machine Would Rather Have the Council Than the Head of the Ticket—Rumor Confirmed.

Realizing the utter hopelessness of electing George W. Hall mayor and the Democratic ticket tomorrow, the Democratic machine bosses met yesterday afternoon and mapped out a program whereby they will throw Mr. Hall overboard for the Progressive candidate, John Rutledge, and the Progressives, in return for this service, will throw all the support possible in an effort to elect the whole Democratic councilmanic ticket.

This meeting and what took place there is absolutely confirmed. The treachery of the Democratic and Progressive bosses was exemplified by the announcement that the Democrats would throw Hall for Rutledge and the Progressives would throw down their councilmanic candidates for the Democratic ticket. It is the intention to let the rest of the ticket get in as best it can.

The news of the meeting was the political sensation of the day. It spread like wildfire. Some Hall men in the Democratic party heard it. They refused to believe that some of the machine men would be so perfidious as to slaughter their candidate for mayor for the sake of keeping themselves in power. They investigated and found that the meeting was true and that the things which were rumored to take place did take place.

They at once started a movement to offset the work of the machine bosses. They realize, however, that there is little chance for Hall because of the grip that the machine has and the number of votes it can control, once the program is well noised about.

Fearing that the real story of the deal might be noised about, the machine Democrats today have been attempting to offset it by telling loudly of the remarkable gains Rutledge has made in the last week.

"If Rutledge had another week," said one of them this afternoon, "he would be elected."

The Democratic machine bosses decided at the eleventh hour that they could not "put Hall across" and they determined on the "frame-up" to "swing Rutledge" as the best solution of the dilemma which confronted them. It was settled at the meeting yesterday afternoon in which Progressive bosses as well participated.

The Progressive bosses were parties to the deal because it offers the only possible chance for them to elect a man on the ticket. They grasped at this because they knew there was no opportunity of putting in office anyone of their candidates. They felt that they would have a faint hope of electing the head of their ticket if the machine Democrats would throw all the votes they could control to Rutledge. The Progressives want only the prestige of electing Rutledge and were very willing parties to the agreement, even though they have to slaughter the rest of their ticket.

Even if the deal is carried out, there is no danger of the election of Rutledge, because the machine Democrats can not control over two hundred votes, if that many. Rutledge has not been allowed more than two hundred votes by the campaign estimators.

There are reasons why he should not be expected to have any more votes than that from his own party. Albert J. Beveridge, who led the Progressive ticket in 1912, received only 317 votes in the whole Rushville township, according to the official vote on file in the clerk's office. In that election there were ten precincts in the township, but in this election the voting is only within the city limits and there are only six precincts, three-fifths of the number in which the 1912 vote was cast. So with these figures taken into consideration, it is safe to predict that Rutledge will not receive more than two hundred votes in the city because he will not attract any more votes than Beveridge, if as many.

There were 1,331 votes cast for mayor in the city election four years ago. Even if the Democratic machine should swing 200 votes to Rutledge, he could not hope for election, because while Hall lost these, were a normal Democratic vote cast, he would be cut down to 500, not counting the inroads that the Progressives might make on the Democratic ranks. In this event the election of Bebout would be absolutely assured.

From the trend of events yesterday afternoon and today, it is settled that the Democratic machine would do anything, even to leading to slaughter its own candidate for mayor, in order to keep itself intact. The machine bases its hopes on the council. Without the deal, the Democratic bosses had absolutely no hope of electing the third ward councilman and the two councilmen-at-large but they did believe they might swing the first and second ward.

With the Progressive support, the machine believes it can elect every Democratic candidate for council and the progressive candidates for council can get what stray votes they are able to pick up. Rutledge would be a mere figurehead and the machine would be just as well off as if Hall were the presiding officer. In the meantime, prestige, not office, is what the Progressives are after.

SIMON GLIDDEN DEAD.

Simon Glidden, 40 years old, a resident of Lewisville, died Saturday night from delirium tremens. Glidden had been under the influence of intoxicating liquor for some time and Saturday night it was necessary to call Dr. Bartlett. He was left sitting in a chair and Sunday morning was found dead on the floor by his wife. Besides the widow he leaves three small children. The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock and burial will take place in the Raleigh cemetery.

The Pythian Sisters will have a called meeting Tuesday night for practice. They will have initiation Wednesday and would like to have all members of the degree staff present tomorrow night.

The always mysterious Dead sea in Palestine is providing a new puzzle for scientists, as it seems to be drying up.

C. L. Bebout and Ticket Stand for Law Enforcement

Tomorrow the voters of Rushville will have to decide whether they want a city administration of law enforcement and business efficiency or a continuation of the methods which have prevailed during the term of the present council and mayor.

A vote for George W. Hall and his ticket means a continuance of the things for which this administration stand: small politics in the appointment of city employees, a policy that does not give an adequate fire protection, lack of economy, poor business methods, machine politics and unclean streets.

A vote for Clata L. Bebout and his ticket means a vote for a safe and sane business administration, one that will be to the best interests of taxpayers. It means a vote for law enforcement and a vote for a policy that will put in force a sufficient fire protection.

This is a question which the men of Rushville should weigh well in their minds when they enter the booths tomorrow to cast their ballots. No man in Rushville is there who does not know the quality of the fire protection which has been provided during the present administration. This was clearly demonstrated by the councilmanic investigation of the Masonic fire.

The insurance companies, as well as the voters of Rushville, know the conditions of the equipment for fire protection. In fact, they know the true conditions better because they have had engineers here who have gone over the equipment thoroughly and have made reports, which are not glossed over, but which show in clear figures in just what jeopardy the property of Rushville is under the present regime.

The fire insurance companies will not threaten. They are now awaiting results. If they do not get them by a change of administration, they will most certainly raise the rates of fire insurance in Rushville. This is no idle talk.

The present administration has not shown any desire to correct the evils that were revealed by the investigation of the Masonic fire. No disposition has been indicated that would be made to improve the fire protection. It is very clear to the fire insurance companies that there is no hope of improved conditions under the present administration, torn and rent as it has been by the desire to enforce machine politics, and the opposition to such a course.

C. L. Bebout stands for law enforcement and riddance of machine politics in attending to the business of the city; for the overthrow of the present administration; for the employment of competent men to operate it to the end that there may be fire protection and an adequate water supply; for efficiency of service and economy of administration; for the present gas rates and oppose any effort to increase the rates; for a clean election which will prevent the corruption of the ballot; and for a wider and more comprehensive sanitation policy to the end that the health of the citizens of the community and their families may be safeguarded. The rest of the ticket stands pledged to carry out these policies and without a council that is pledged to carry out the same things, his work would be useless.

As sheriff of Rush county, Mr. Bebout has attended to his duties without fear or favor and without any regard for politics. He has acted within the provinces of his office in enforcing the law as his position demands. As a man Mr. Bebout is above reproach and he commands the respect of the whole community because of the reputation which he has established for himself. A vote for Mr. Bebout will mean a vote for the things for which he has shown he stands while sheriff and a vote for George W. Hall will mean a vote for a continuance of conditions as they are today. This is a thing which should be considered thoughtfully by every voter in Rushville.

The rest of the ticket is composed of men of sterling worth. Lewis M. Sexton and E. F. Scudder, candidates for councilmen-at-large, are capable business men who have lived in Rushville for years and whose excellent qualifications for filling the offices to which they aspire are well known.

The candidates for ward councilmen: O. C. Brann from the first; Arthur McGinnis from the second; and A. E. Wagner from the third—are all men of great value to the community and who can perform the duties of councilmen with care and precision, and with a business judgment and sense that will be for the best in-

LOCAL SCHOOL WINS CONTEST

In Eleventh Hour Finish Main Street Christians Are Victorious Over Winchester, Ky.

ATTENDANCE MOUNTS TO 1,588

Picture of Banner School Taken and Result at Winchester Announced Before Dismissal.

The Main Street Christian Bible school of this city won the contest with the Christian Bible school of Winchester, Kentucky, yesterday when the largest assemblage of people ever gathered at any Sunday school in Rush county attended the morning session.

There were 1,588 people at the Sunday school by actual count and the collection amounted to $780. There were 259 new scholars. This means that the Rushville school won every point even though only one point was needed to win the contest.

At the Winchester school there was an attendance of 1,447 and a collection of $603.62. The new scholars numbered 240. The Winchester school was confident of winning after beating the local school out of victory a week ago when it took every point by a wonderful spurt. The Kentucky organization not counting on such a showing being made here and felt amply certain of winning with the results obtained yesterday.

Every bit of available space in the large auditorium of the Christian church and the Sunday school room was taken up yesterday and still all of the people could not be accommodated.

Four of the classes met in homes in the community because there was no room for them in the church. The church filled quickly after the opening at the regular Sunday school hour and by the time the classes had returned to the main auditorium, the church had been filled again and there was nothing for the people who had been at classes but to stand. Even then all of the people could not get in the church.

The announcement of the result was withheld until news of the Winchester school's collection and attendance could be obtained over the wire. After the program following the class hour, the school assembled on the lawn in front of the church and a picture was taken. People clamored on the roof of the church, the roof of the parsonage, on the parsonage porch, the church porch, in windows and in every place possible where they might be included in the monster picture, but still all of the persons who attended the Sunday school were not included. The large lawn in front of the church did not furnish enough space for the crowd.

When the news from Winchester was received, the school gathered in the church again and the announcements were read. Because of the lateness of the hour, the regular preaching services were dispensed with, but the usual communion service was held.

It was at first thought that Winchester had won the points for new scholars because 226 was all that was reported, but it was later found that only new new scholars had been reported from the Loyal Women's class when there should have been sixty. The report showed this number by a count at the door, but a mistake had been made in reporting that the count had not been made and an estimate of 23 was used until the mistake was learned and corrected.

Automobiles were used yesterday to take people to and from Sunday school.

RUN CARS ONLY TO JUNCTION

I. & C. Maintains Regular Service Except That Interurbans do Not Enter Indianapolis.

BECAUSE OF THE CAR STRIKE

Lives of Trainmen Would be Endangered Because no Police Protection is Offered.

The regular service of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company has not been disturbed by the strike of carmen in Indianapolis, with the exception that cars are being run only to the junction of the Shelbyville and Rushville divisions, which is one mile from city limits and four miles from the traction terminal building in the center of the city.

"We are not asking our men to take any risks that would endanger their life," said an I. & C. official today. "We know that the lives of our trainmen are in jeopardy if they enter the city with our cars and for that reason we are not asking them to run their cars to the traction terminal building."

Late Saturday afternoon the last I. & C. car was taken into the traction terminal station. When strikers attempted to pull the crew off of a Shelbyville division car, the I. & C. officials determined that no more cars should be run any farther than the corner of Keystone avenue and Prospect street, which is just inside the city limits.

Cars were operated to this point a part of yesterday, but when there were signs of strikers in that neighborhood, the cars were taken only as far as the junction. Last night a body of labor union men walked to the junction and the first I. & C. car that came in attempted to persuade the trainmen to abandon the car and go with them into Indianapolis.

The I. & C. trainmen refused to follow them and when there appeared to be danger, instead of taking their car around the "Y" and heading it back toward Rushville, they backed the car on here to the barns, rather than have trouble. No more cars were run into the junction last night after this episode.

"We intend to operate cars over our own lines so long as the lives of our men are not endangered," said an I. & C. official today. "So long as there seems to be no trouble or danger at the junction, we will run cars there, but when signs of trouble appear, we will not run the cars as far as the junction. We will not run cars into Indianapolis again until the city cars are being operated and we have police protection."

The I. & C. stopped running cars from the junction to the city limits when the labor men began to take notice of the interurbans. There are two railroad bridges under which the I. & C. stretch of track runs, and it was feared that timbers or stones might be dropped down on the cars and injure or kill passengers and trainmen.

The I. & C. can not carry any freight or express into Indianapolis, of course, while the city lines were tied up. Freight and express can be carried to points just this side of Indianapolis.

Affairs are in a chaotic state in Indianapolis and lives of pedestrians are in very grave danger. The city cars are not being run because trolley lines have been cut and motormen and conductors had to flee from their cars to save their lives. Several hundred strike breakers have been imported and cars will be run whenever police protection is afforded.

ATTEMPTED TO WRECK TRAIN

William Scott Placed Several Large Stones on Pennsylvania Railway and Was Arrested.

REMOVED BY SECTION MEN

Case Will Be Heard in Circuit Court—Attempted Suicide Yesterday at County Jail.

William Scott, 20 years old, was arrested late Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Bebout and a Pennsylvania railway detective, charged with attempting to wreck a train. Scott was to have been arraigned before Judge Megee this afternoon and it is understood that he will plead guilty to the charge. The minimum sentence for an offense of this kind is two to fourteen years in prison.

Scott was employed by Otto Krammes, south of the city and about one week ago the section men on the Pennsylvania railway found several large stones placed on the track. The stones were braced against the ties so that a wreck surely would have occurred had not the obstruction been found in time.

The stones were placed on the track shortly after the evening passenger train went south and the next train would have been the north-bound passenger. The detective department of the railway was notified and an investigation started.

Saturday Scott was cornered by a Pennsylvania detective and at first denied any knowledge of the crime. After the detective left Scott made an effort to leave the Krammes home and was caught and brought here. After being placed in jail Scott admitted his guilt. He could give no reason for placing the stones on the track and stated that shortly before the train was due he had gone to the place and intended to remove the obstruction and found that it was gone.

Then yesterday Scott added another chapter to the story when he attempted suicide at the jail. Scott obtained a small bottle of ammonia that was left in the corridor and drank part of the contents. Scott was a very sick man for a while and was brought through after an hour's work. He stated that he would rather die than go to prison. Scott is believed by the officers to be about half simple.

CONTENTS OF SAFE TAKEN

Office of Dr. F. G. Hackleman Robbed Saturday Night.

The office of Dr. F. G. Hackleman was robbed sometime Saturday night and the contents of the safe taken. The safe contained some money and old coins. The combination on the safe was not turned off and after getting the heavy door open, the robber smashed the other door and got to the money drawer. Entrance to the office was gained through the rear door opening into the hall. Dr. Hackleman believes that the robbery was the work of home talent but as yet the police have no clues. The robbery was discovered yesterday morning.

Ray Richardson, living southwest of Raleigh, didn't know that the shotgun with which he was playing was loaded, with the result that he lost the first finger on his right hand. The accident occurred Sunday morning. The finger was so badly lacerated that it was necessary to amputate.

Mr. Hall's Attitude.

In an eleventh hour statement to stop the trend of support away from him, George W. Hall, Democratic candidate for mayor, says that he wants the voters to know that he has made no promises to anyone concerning any of the appointment that it would be my duty to make should I be elected.

Is this an admission, then, that the promise of the re-appointment of John Kelly as street commissioner and the re-appointment of Superintendent Brown at the water and light plant would bring calumny down on his head and lessens his chances for election?

We believe it is since this is used by the Democratic machine to stave off certain defeat of their candidate. Is there any dishonor in the fact that the promise of re-appointment was made to these two gentlemen? Mr. Hall's statement at least leaves that idea.

The common political story that was going the rounds immediately after the Democratic city convention was that Mr. Hall was Mayor Black's candidate and that the mayor was the emissary who was going among the dissatisfied element of the party and pointing out that his appointees and his policies would not be disturbed so that there would be no trouble in getting back in office next time. That is to say that the machine would go on in its own sweet way, perfectly greased and in working order for the next election when four years roll around.

But the coming election in Rushville is going to serve as a rebuke to machine methods and petty politics in the administration of the city's affair. Any number of Democrats have resolved that they will put an end to the city machine and at the same time warn all other parties that they will not compromise themselves by allowing such conditions to exist.

The Democratic leaders around here see the handwriting. They can read it as plainly as if it were next Tuesday night. They have been sitting up with the Democrats who they know are going to leave the ticket this time because of the puerile attitude of the present administration. They have been disgusted with the way the business of the city has been run.

There is no one to deny that the machine is fighting for its last breath to remain in power. There is no one to deny that the machine brought about the butchering of Harry Kramer at the convention when he had been pleaded with to "take the nomination."

The machine could not be kept in good running condition without the big boss, John Kelly, in office, and Mr. Hall does not deny that charge that he does intend to re-appoint Mr. Kelly, even though he has made no promises.

Finly Gray, representative from this district, commented on the House's action in contributing toward a wedding gift for Miss Wilson, in the following words: "I think this movement is in bad taste, indiscreet and unwarranted assumption by members of this House. I do not think that we should tender trinkets to this lady. Most of us are strangers to her and it is bad form for us to intrude."

The citizens of this great state are called Hoosiers. When Indiana pioneers rafted down the Mississippi to New Orleans their behavior won for them the nickname "hoosier." This is a Creole-French term and means "person of bad manners."

Prominent Physician at Lafayette Under a Serious Charge.

Fowler, Ind., Nov. 3.—Dr. Samuel S. Washburn of Lafayette, who was arrested in Lafayette charged with performing a criminal operation upon Hazel Dudley of Fowler, which caused her death Sept. 25, was arraigned in circuit court here and was placed under $2,000 bond for his appearance at the November term. Charles Morine, who is said to have been engaged to the girl, has turned state's evidence since his arrest in Indianapolis, it is understood. Morine was married in Indianapolis Wednesday to Miss Katherine Sims of Fowler, and his wife remained in jail with him until he obtained bond. Dr. Washburn was recently appointed a pension examiner in Tippecanoe county. He denies ever having seen Miss Dudley or Morine.

The Best and Cheapest Place for You to Trade Is In Rushville, Ind.

A great many people get the idea that Rushville is the highest priced place on earth to trade—which is not the case.

It is true that Rushville has the reputation of being the best trading point in this section of Indiana. It is true that Rushville carries the best grades of everything in the merchandise line—the best manufactured products of the world. Her stores are well stocked with goods in great variety to select from—and it is also true that Rushville's Prices are the very lowest that good goods can be sold for. Get this right—Rushville is the BEST and CHEAPEST place to do your trading.

A great many people get an idea that because we handle a high grade, dependable line of Pianos and Player-Pianos — such as the "KIMBALL," "Knabe Bros.," "Chase & Baker," "Whitney," "Oakland" and "Merrifield" that our prices are extremely high and out of reason. On the other hand our prices are very reasonable, considerably lower than the prices asked in other Cities. We have Pianos and Player-Pianos at our store to suit every purse. Medium priced Pianos which we guarantee to be equal, if not better, to any other Pianos on the market today. We have high grade Pianos for the discriminating purchasers who want the best and the most for their money. We sell on a One Price Basis which is fair to one and all. We sell on an Easy Payment Plan, where the customer does not desire to pay cash down for a Piano. We have made many Rush county homes happy during the past three years with our perfectly good and dependable Pianos and Player-Pianos. Many Pianos of our makes were sold in Rush county homes as far back as Twenty-five and Thirty years ago and they still remain good instruments today. Satisfied customers is our aim—that is why we like to sell good old reliable makes of Pianos.

We believe that Rush County people appreciate QUALITY in everything that they buy. We believe that they want their money's worth. That is why we have on sale the very best makes of Pianos and Player-Pianos in the World today. We are in better position at this time to give you what you want, at a price that you want to pay. You can save money that you have worked hard to earn by coming down to our store before you buy a Piano or Player-Piano—or anything in the Musical Instrument line. We are always glad to show goods. RUMORS CAUSE RUN ON BANKS

Depositors in Mexico City Seriously Agitated.

THE TAXING OF BANK DEPOSITS

Report That the Huerta Government Was in Such Dire Straits For Money That It Would Impose a 15 Per Cent Tax on All Bank Deposits, Created a Flurry in the Capital of Disturbed Republic.

Mexico City, Nov. 3.—There has been a run on many banks in Mexico City on account of a report that the government was in dire straits for money and intended imposing a tax of 15 per cent on all deposits. The finance minister denied the truth of this report, saying it is absurd to suppose that the government would be capable of an action contrary to the elementary principles of political economy. The Mexican government, he added, is anxious to get the support of foreign capital and would not do anything to increase foreign complications which would be the result of taxing bank deposits, as almost all the banks here are controlled by foreign capital.

The banks delivered $4,000,000 to the government Saturday, the balance of the loan of $9,000,000 made recently. With this money the government employees and federal soldiers were paid. The option on a French loan of $25,000,000 expires on Dec. 1, and the government professes confidence that the French bankers will come to its aid.

The rebels who withdrew from Monterey captured Montemorelos, in the state of Tamaulipas and destroyed more than half the city before they were compelled to evacuate it by a federal force. Linares, which also was threatened by the Constitutionalists, has been relieved. The federal garrison of Fresnillo has evacuated the city, being outnumbered by the rebels. It is expected that the rebels will soon attack Chihuahua, but the governor of the state telegraphed to the government that he has 6,000 troops and is able to defend the city.

ADM NI TRATION IS WAITING

The Next Move in International Game Is Up to Huerta.

Washington, Nov. 3.—There is an air of waiting in administration circles with regard to the Mexican crisis, and President Wilson seemingly will delay action until he receives more definite information in regard to Provisional President Huerta's program. Washington still adheres to the belief that Huerta will remain in control of affairs in the Mexican capital, whether as president or dictator matters little, but certainly at the head of the armed forces of the country.

It is pointed out that by resigning the presidency in favor of Vice President Blanquet and retaining his position of commander-in-chief of the army, Huerta would be powerful and also would be an undesirable element in the Mexican government, apparently intolerable to President Wilson. At the same moment Huerta could retain his military rank and power and at the same minute keep his pledge to the world that he does not intend to continue in the presidential office.

The administration expresses no surprise at the reports from Mexico City that the elections held one week ago Sunday were fraudulent. The ef-frontery of General Huerta in holding a make-believe election within less than a week after his promises to the diplomatic corps in Mexico City that he would not be a candidate is, however, causing surprise in view of Huerta's known intelligence. Officials say his course will give any nation that has already recognized him an opportunity to refuse recognition to his successor placed in office as the result of the recent electoral farce. The belief prevails here that some of the European nations would be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity offered by any change in the present situation in Mexico to withdraw recognition of

RUSHVILLE, INDIANA

Winners

The Get of Winners

Production

This describes the class of cattle we will sell in their coming sale. Messrs Boyd and Dixon have had the most prominent show herds on the big Faircircuit for the past half dozen years, and they have always won their share of the money. They have shown in competition with the largest herds in the country. In the sale will be animals that have won not only blue ribbons this fall, but some that have walked out with championships; and the best part of it all, they were bred at home. All of the animals to be sold were not on the show circuit, yet I saw two at Mr. Boyd's farm who were superior individuals to the ones he had out. This is also true of Mr. Dixon's cattle, yet they did not freshen at the right time.

You can secure at this sale animals that combine the blood of winners with production. The Catalog is ready. Write to the de facto government. It will be regarded as an act of friendship to the United States and undoubtedly will strengthen the present position of President Wilson.

From the Constitutional representative in Washington there are coming veiled promises of important developments in the military situation in northern and north central Mexico in the course of the week. Already they are claiming that the most recent successes of the Carranza forces have been minimized in the press reports.

PROVIDENCE PLANS

WEDDING HE SAYS

Doctor Will Not See Bride Until After Marriage.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 3.—In the woods at Northfield, lying side by side, with a gaping bullet wound in the temple of each, James F. Bly, a youthful medical student who came here from Pittsburgh a year ago, and his equally youthful bride, who was Miss Rose Herring of this city, were discovered Sunday afternoon by a hunter.

The discovery of the bodies reveals a tragic romance that had its inception here last June and brings to a close the frantic search conducted by the relatives of both the young people since their disappearance early in September. Letters discovered on the bodies of both the boy and the girl, for Bly was barely eighteen years of age, and his bride a year his senior, indicate that they had entered into a suicide pact as the only solution of the difficulties by which they found themselves enmeshed through their secret wedding.

Mrs. Marie Herring, mother of the girl, is in a serious condition at her home in the Hotel Saxony since she learned of the tragic fate of her daughter. A few doors below, at the Hotel Ralston, Mrs. Albert J. Bly, mother of the boy, also is beside herself with grief.

Despite the opposition to the infatuation which had sprung up between young Bly and Miss Herring last June, the youthful couple are said to have married on Aug. 20. A letter signed by each of them and found in the clothing of young Bly reads: "Death is the easiest way out. Rose will kill herself first and I will follow."

THE BLEACHERS COLLAPSE

Many Persons Injured During Progress of Football Game.

Greencastle, Ind., Nov. 3.—Twenty-six persons were injured when the north bleachers on McKeen athletic field collapsed Saturday afternoon, carrying with them hundreds who had gathered to see the Rose Polytechnic-DePauw football game. Several were seriously hurt.

Almost no warning of the impending crash was given the occupants of the stand. The bleachers were of heavy timbers, and that several were not killed was due to the solid construction of the framework. With a slight sway the structure collapsed. Although the supporting timbers were torn away, and none of the occupants was pinned beneath the wrecked bleachers when they sank to the ground. When it became apparent that no one was injured fatally, preparations for the football game were continued and within a few minutes play was begun.

Health Officers Close Schools. Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 3.—Fearing an epidemic of diphtheria, the city school board and the city health officials have ordered all of the schools but the high school closed. The schools will be fumigated and the children will be kept from the streets, theaters, Sunday schools and churches.

Garrison Finishes Inspection. Panama, Nov. 3.—Secretary of War Garrison has finished his inspection of the canal and the forts for its defense and will leave the isthmus tomorrow.

Saving is a Sensible Proposition

The Rush County National Bank does not believe in trying to scare people into saving money. Systematic thrift is such a common sense thing that it ought to appeal to every sensible person.

But it is human nature to forget and to procrastinate so we believe in reminding people of their duty to save a portion of their income regularly, and call attention to the fact that this bank provides a strong place for savings and pays 3% interest.

TO CUT MEXICO OFF FROM WORLD

This Is Said to Be Uncle Sam's Present Plan.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE ALL MADE

At Least That Is the Report That Comes by Way of El Paso, the Chief Border Town, Where Information Regarding Affairs Relating to Troubled Southern Republic Is of Large Importance.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 3.—It doesn't surprise any class of men along the American border that the big European powers are becoming more and more impatient over the Mexican situation. The impatience has been anticipated, seeing that the great powers concerned always have had a definite foreign policy where the loss of life and the destruction of property are concerned.

The first mutterings in June, the recent "pressure" and the steps which must follow are simply regarded as the logical progress toward the inevitable, and that is intervention by the United States in the interest of peace in Mexico. It is well known here that the army and navy have made preparations for any contingency and that both are ready to move at a moment's notice.

Of course the time limit placed by close students of the situation is subject to certain conditions. If Pancho Villa, the Constitutionalist general, who is holding about thirty foreigners as hostages, should permit his men to kill the Germans and English, as has been done in the past; or if a mob of tequila-filled soldiers of Salazar's command in Juarez should massacre some of the several thousand Americans who go nightly to that city to gamble; or if there should be riots and death in any of the larger Mexican cities, action will come sooner. In the orderly course of events, however, the knowing ones figure that four months at the outside will see the United States lifted into the saddle.

It may be said that the war department and the navy department are not only ready to go into Mexico, but they have worked out plans, they have made arrangements to carry out those plans, and they can begin to move inside of a half hour. It is again safe to say that within two hours of the sending of telegraphic instructions from Washington, the guns of Uncle Sam's field artillery would be in a position to wipe Juarez off the map in a case of non surrender, and to raze Matamoros, Nuevo Laredo, Naco, Cananea and every other Mexican town along the border. American troops would hold all the outlets within half a day, if that were necessary, and control the termini of the railroads, national or private, while fleets of warship in the Atlantic and the Gulf of California would be moving to capture every Mexican port. A full day would put 10,000 infantrymen and artillery, a full division, on transports which are waiting for them, bound for Vera Cruz, the first important strategic point toward Mexico City. The following day every United States soldier on the mainland would be in trains moving toward the posts assigned. This is not guesswork and not prophecy; the plans are made, the trains arranged for and tested, the supplies provided for. It only required six hours to start for Cuba in the last intervention, and it will not take so long in Mexico.

Enough of the general plan is known to say that we are not going to inundate Mexico with United States soldiers. We are going to embargo Mexico.

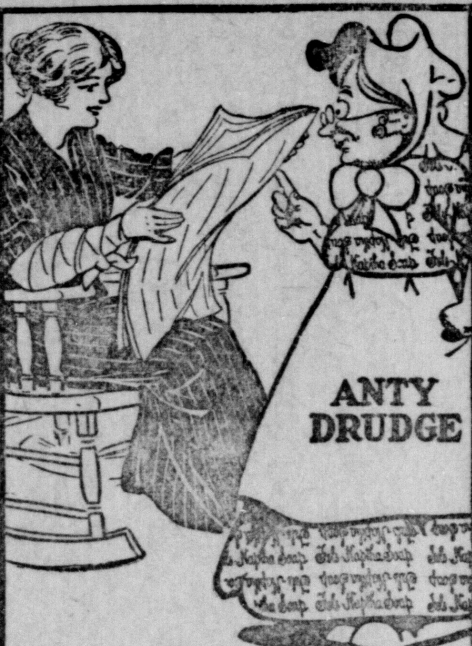

STILL GOING AFTER SULZER

Ex-Governor May Have to Face Criminal Indictment.

New York, Nov. 3.—Machinery has been set in motion to secure the indictment of William Sulzer in Albany county for subornation of perjury. The charge against Sulzer will be based upon his effort to induce Duncan W. Peck to testify falsely before the Frawley committee, as Mr. Peck said when he appeared as a witness at the impeachment trial.

If the grand jury indicts Sulzer his disqualification as a member of the new assembly is assured. There is little doubt that the ex-governor will have to answer to a charge that he tried to induce ex-Senator Stephen J. Stilwell to make an affidavit incriminating Charles F. Murphy, A. J. Levy and Senator J. J. Frawley in return for a pardon.

The steps to be taken against Sulzer may be looked for immediately after the legislature meets on Nov. 10. As the plan was outlined the senate or the assembly, or both, in concurrent resolution, will call upon the attorney general and the district attorney of Albany county to cause the indictment of Sulzer for his attempt to influence testimony of Peck before the Frawley committee.

Mrs. Payne—"Here's an article says: 'If your arm was long enough to touch the sun and burn your fingers you would not feel the pain for 6792 years.' I wish my arm was so long I couldn't feel the pain where I scalded it in the old washboiler yesterday."

Anty Drudge—"I certainly am sorry for the way you are suffering, but I hope it will teach you a lesson to use Fels-Naptha Soap after this in cool or lukewarm water and not fool with washboilers or hot water."

Fels-Naptha Soap used the right way in cool or lukewarm water will save your strength and will give you time for rest and pleasure.

State Pays Call Loan.
Indianapolis, Nov. 3.—The state board of finance ordered the payment of $60,000 of the $460,000 temporary loan made in September. This $60,000 was a call loan. The money was paid by W. H. Vollmer, state treasurer, with interest amounting to $284.17. The remainder of the loan, $400,000, will be due Dec. 31. It is held by four Indianapolis banks, each of them having lent $100,000.

Committee Takes a Rest.
Washington, Nov. 3.—Progress on the currency bill in the senate committee on banking has been deferred until Wednesday.

JAMES M'REYNOLDS
Attorney General Demands Dissolution of Harvester "Trust."

HARVESTER TRUST IS FACING LAST DITCH

Final Argument in Dissolution Suit Begins.

St. Paul, Nov. 3.—Persons who have been seeking light on the policy of the Wilson administration toward the dissolution of industrial corporations accused of having violated the Sherman anti-trust law, will find it in a brief which Attorney General McReynolds filed today with the United States district court here in the final argument of the suit to dissolve the International Harvester company.

In the suit against the $140,000,000 harvester company McReynolds insists that the court shall order things in such a way as to bring about a dissolution in fact as well as in theory.

"In order that the plan may establish a condition in honest harmony with the law, it is imperative that it shall disintegrate the business of the principal defendant in such a manner that no two of the disintegrated parts shall be acquired by or come under the control of companies having common stockholders or companies otherwise under common control or influence."

This request by the attorney general is reflecting his views toward the proposed dissolution of the harvester trust, and indicates what his attitude is likely to be in seeking the dissolution of the United States Steel corporation. The attorney general in his brief asks that a decree be entered at once against the International Harvester company adjudging it to be an unlawful combination and monopoly.

Editor Killed in Auto Wreck.

FRAIL WEAKLY CHILD

Made Strong by Vinol.

So many cases like this are coming to our attention for the benefit of fathers and mothers of weak, sickly, ailing children in this vicinity we publish the following letter:

Mrs. J. P. Weatherford, Litchfield, Ill., says: "We had an invalid child for the past nine years and until we began using Vinol, we sometimes thought there was little hope for him. He would have terrible coughing spells at night, and they would leave him so exhausted. We tried everything, but to no avail. At last some one suggested that we try Vinol, and we noticed a change in him from the very first. The coughing spells ceased and he gained in strength right along. We would not be without it and would advise parents who have frail and weakly children to try Vinol."

This is because the child needed the strengthening cod liver elements and tonic iron that Vinol contains. No oil, delicious taste. Children love it. We give back your money if Vinol does not benefit. F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, Rushville, Ind.

P. S.—For rough, scaly skin, try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

DEATH FOLLOWS STRIKE RIOTING

Another Fatality Attends Disturbance at Indianapolis.

A STRIKE BREAKER WAS SLAIN

Tie-Up of the Indianapolis Street Railway System is Complete Following the Strike of Motormen and Conductors, the Company Having Turned Off the Power Awaiting Such Time, It Says, as It Can Have Protection.

Indianapolis, Nov. 3.—As a result of the streetcar strike the second death occurred last night at the city hospital, to which Isaac Fleishman, a strike breaker, aged twenty-five, of Philadelphia, who was shot during a riot in the vicinity of the Louisiana street car barns about 8:30 o'clock, had been removed.

A rumor that 300 strike breakers from Chicago had arrived to join an equal force which landed here Saturday afternoon, and were being transferred to the Louisiana street car barn, resulted in the assembling of 2,000 or more union sympathizers in the neighborhood of the barn. The police, after vainly warning the crowd to disperse, fired their revolvers in the air. It is thought other revolvers also were fired. At least there were no fewer than fifty shots heard before the crowd, finding the rumor of the arrival of the strike breakers' arrival to have been unfounded, dispersed. When the smoke of battle cleared it was found that Fleishman had been mortally wounded while standing in the door of the car barn. The police, having no evidence as to the identity of the person firing the fatal shot, made no arrests.

The other fatality in connection with the strike was the death of a negro who was run over by a city ambulance which was conveying to the hospital a motorman who had been seriously wounded by a brick which crashed through the window of his car. The negro's head was crushed by the wheels of the heavy ambulance.

Turned the Power Off.

The "juice" was turned off Saturday following an ineffectual attempt on the part of the company to operate the lines which have been tied up since midnight Friday night following the strike of the motormen and conductors, who are demanding an increase of wages and shorter hours. Not a wheel was turned Sunday, and it is regarded as unlikely that any attempt will be made to operate the cars for several days. Officers of the street railway company admit that the strikers have control of the situation, and declare that the responsibility for this state of affairs lies with the police department, which officers of the company say has "laid down" on the job.

An effort Saturday to run cars with the help of out-of-town strike breakers was met on every line by such determined resistance on the part of the strikers and persons in sympathy with them that the effort had to be abandoned. Trolley ropes were cut, car windows smashed and in some instances cars thrown off the track. Only the most intrepid attempted to ride on the cars, and these were very few, as the crashing of stones through the windows of such cars as had picked up a passenger or two gave ominous warning of the danger of riding upon the besieged carriers. Finally, after the trolley wires had been cut in several places along the line, the "juice" was turned off at the power stations and the battered cars abandoned wherever they happened to be when the motive power ceased to flow. Several motormen were more or less injured by the battery of stones during the preliminary skirmish. Though the police guarded the cars and patrolled the tracks, few arrests were made and mounted policemen calmly contemplating the scenes of the greatest disorder on Washington street in the heart of the retail district, smilingly doffed their caps in response to the cheers of the crowds. A number of policemen have turned in their badges, refusing to act on duty against the strikers.

Blame Laid on Hoodlums.

The strikers claim to be quiet and say it is the hoodlum element that virtually is in control of the situation. The non-union men refuse to work unless protection is afforded, and the city officials claim inability to handle the situation. There have been frequent conferences but no solution of the problem has been reached and the immediate future is chaotic.

"We stand ready and have at our command a sufficient force of men to resume streetcar service as soon as Mayor Shank and Superintendent Hyland of the police department can give us assurances of protection," said President Robert I. Todd of the street railway company.

"As to how soon the service can be restored is now entirely up to the city administration. If the police department finally admits its inability to preserve order and give our men the necessary protection, I cannot at this time say what our next step will be."

Governor Ralston declined to come to the aid of the city, holding that it was the duty of the police department and the sheriff first to make every possible effort first to preserve order.

TWO YOUNG QUITTERS THINK IT BEST TO DIE

Early Marriage Ends In a "Suicide Pact."

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Following a courtship of the most unusual sort, Mrs. Marion C. Arnett, a pretty widow of this city, will marry a man she has never seen and whose face she will not look upon until after the wedding ceremony. He is Dr. Francis W. Hartley, a prominent throat specialist of Baltimore. He has never seen his bride.

After courting the widow for several months by mail and telephone, the specialist received his answer over the long distance telephone with the request that they arrange an immediate meeting. Dr. Hartley was unwilling, and so it was agreed that they should not see each other's face until after they are married.

In accordance with the specialist's wishes, Mrs. Arnett will hide her pretty face behind a heavy black veil until after the second ceremony. Two services are necessary, because the doctor has two names, his real one being James H. Hellyer. He assumed the other when he represented his foster father, a former specialist of that name in this city.

Dr. Hartley says that he does not want to see his bride's face until after they are married, because their wedding has been planned by Providence. The doctor says that his faith in Providence is strong enough to take a chance.

A Cuban friend of Dr. Hartley's advertised for a wife. Mrs. Arnett answered the advertisement, but the wife seeker was compelled to go to Cuba without making a proposal of marriage. The specialist then took up the courting. The wedding is to take place within a week or two.

terests of the people. They stand for an economical administration, as compared to the extravagant one which will retire the last day of this year.

Carl Gunning, as candidate for clerk, and John P. Stech, as candidate for city treasurer, are men who are well qualified to attend to the duties falling to their lot in case of election. There could be no doubt or no reflection on their capabilities for the offices which they seek.

This ticket will continue under the present plan of cleaning the paved streets, except that they will be kept clean all the time. The Democratic ticket stands for an unjust policy which will assess the cost of cleaning the streets against the abutting property owners. This is unfair for the reason that the cost of cleaning the paved streets, which need no repair, is not as great as the cleaning and repairing of dirt streets. The taxpayers stand the cost of the one and they should stand the cost of the other.

DEATH COMES TO AGED MAN

William McGee is Found Dead in Bed by Family.

William McGee, 77 years old, was found dead in bed yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. David Collier, near Falmouth. Death was caused by heart disease. Mr. McGee was apparently in his usual health Saturday night and when the family called him Sunday morning and he did not answer they investigated and found him dead. Mr. McGee had been subjected to attacks of the heart. Besides Mrs. Collier, he is survived by one son, Charles McGee of Richmond. The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday morning at the Fairview church and burial will take place in the church cemetery.

Miss Esther Black Sustained Wrenched Hip When Bleachers Collapsed at Greencastle.

UNABLE TO BE BROUGHT HOME

Miss Esther Black, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. B. A. Black, a student at DePauw University, Greencastle, was one of the twenty-five women injured Saturday when a section of the bleachers collapsed during the football game between DePauw and Rose Poly. Miss Black sustained a badly wrenched hip and will not be able to be moved to her home here for several days. Mrs. Black and daughter Miss Helen left this morning for Greencastle and expected to remain until Miss Esther could return home with them.

The bleachers that collapsed was known as the women's section and the stand went down under the weight without warning. All were caught in the wreckage. The family of the girl here called Greencastle yesterday and learned that her condition was such that she could not be moved. The injury is not expected to prove serious.

RETIRE FROM FIRM

Dissolution Sale of Kennedy & Casady Dry Goods Stock Will Begin Thursday.

MR. CASADY TO OWN STORE

Russell Casady will be sole proprietor of the Kennedy & Casady dry goods store in Main street after January 1, 1914. A dissolution sale begins next Thursday morning at eight o'clock at this store, at the close of which Ralph Kennedy will retire from the firm. The sale will close the day before Christmas and the remaining days of the year will be utilized for invoicing.

Mr. Kennedy announces that he will buy a ready-to-wear garment store in Joliet, Illinois and in addition will manage a string of similar stores for a Chicago manufacturer of ready-to-wear garments. Joliet is a city of forty thousand inhabitants, according to Mr. Kennedy with only four dry good stores, three of which sell ready-to-wear garments. He feels that his opportunities will be excellent in the new venture.

The Gem will show the usual three pictures tonight. The first is a Nestor drama entitled "When the Blood Calls." The other is a two-reel Rex drama "The Harvest of Flames." This one is said to be a thrilling production.

HOW TO VOTE.

The approach of the election suggests that all voters be advised fully as to the correct way of marking a ballot to vote as the voter intends.

To vote a straight ticket mark an X in the circle at the top of the ticket, and mark nowhere else.

To vote a mixed ticket do not mark in the circle but mark an X in the small square in front of the name of each man for whom you want to vote, and make no other mark on the ballot.

Each voter is privileged to vote for two councilmen-at-large, and for one councilman from his ward, and for mayor, clerk and treasurer.

The official ballot for each ward will bear only the names of candidates to be voted for in that ward. This will include, of course, the names of the city ticket proper and the names of the candidates for council from that ward.

There will be no confusion in the mind of any voter if he will give these matters a moment's thought, but experience in all past elections proves that it is necessary to give the subject a little thought.

The largest settlement in Greencastle is Sydproven, which has a population of 766, and the smallest is Skansen, in North Greencastle, with forty-six inhabitants.

In Berlin, Germany, the number of women between the ages of seventy and eighty is 25,304, as against 12,898 men. Three out of every four nonagenarians are women.

These are busy days in every department of our store, but particularly so in the ready-to-wear departments, where the season's latest novelties in coats, suits, skirts, waists, dresses and furs are on display. But we did not let the heavy selling of the past month influence us to depart from our policy of always having complete assortments and complete ranges of sizes in all these stocks.

Now we can announce that final shipments have brought our stocks to the point where we are showing today not only as many garments as we have shown at any time during the season, but a great number that sound the latest word in fashion.

If you have deferred purchasing your fall garments, come and see here, today, the latest arrivals created by America's foremost designers.
